Course Description

The 2006 Annual Meeting of the California Council on Gerontology and Geriatrics (CCGG) marks the 25th Anniversary of excellence in gerontology and geriatrics education. This meeting brings together leaders and experts on aging policy, education, and practice in institutions of higher education to prepare for the aging of the Baby Boomers. The focus of the annual meeting will be on developing educational strategies to prepare the workforce to meet the needs and preferences of California's diverse aging population.

Educational Objectives

1. To identify key issues in educational policy in gerontology and geriatrics from the perspective of our state legislative representatives.
2. To discuss the 2005 White House Conference on Aging resolutions affecting the future of older adults in America.
3. To discuss the challenges faced by caregiving families, including therapeutic interventions to facilitate family and recipient well-being, California resources, and training needs of health and social services professionals.
