

CCGG Annual Meeting

April 8, 2011 Sacramento

California Dreaming: Education, Innovation and Opportunities

We need to involve every bright mind we can in the venture of planning new service models and educational programs, and in making recommendations important to our diverse aging population. Join CCGG to work collaboratively on some of the largest challenges California has ever faced.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Aging + Economics = "Geronomics"
- Innovative Ways to Connect Gerontology and Geriatric Education to Our Workforce Needs
- Health Care Reform: What It Means For Aging Education and Jobs For Students
- Innovative Careers in Gerontology Practice and Healthcare Delivery
- Gerontology Program Accreditation:

A New Look at An Old Concept

- An Aging California in the 21st Century: Education, Healthcare, and Workforce Development

PLUS, the 3rd Annual Poster Session.